

Highlights

- Syria: In the period of October 2014- January 31 2015, IOM winterization efforts in Syria have reached over 300,000 displaced and affected individuals in Aleppo, Al-Hasska, Damascus, Daraa, Homs, Idleb, Latakia and Rural Damascus.
- Jordan: IOM assisted 6,408 individuals with medical health support during January, as well as continuing to provide transportation support to the refugee camps for Syrians in Jordan, and shoes to refugees arriving in Azraq camp who were considered to have insufficiently protective footwear.
- Iraq: In addition to distributing 1,500 winterization NFI kits and 1,052 full NFI kits to Syrian refugees living in Erbil and Dahuk governorates, IOM provided transportation assistance to 6,180 Syrian refugees at 3 border crossings.
- Turkey: Throughout the month of January, IOM continued with the distribution of winterization items for Syrians living in urban areas, including the provision of stoves and coal, targeting vulnerable families. Regular provision of NFIs including blankets, mattresses and other core items were also continued.
- Lebanon: IOM supplied over 1,000 Syrian refugee and Lebanese returnee families with urgent winter assistance. 600 families in Akkar, the Bekaa and South Lebanon received cash transfers for fuel, stoves and blankets. A further 227 families in substandard shelters within informal settlements received weatherproofing kits.

Sanabil's Story

FROM INSIDE SYRIA

Sanabil [alias name] is a mother of four children from Rural Damascus. She lost her husband and both of her legs due to a mortar shelling mid-2013. Since then she's the breadwinner of her family. After the injury, she was managing in limited way with a wheelchair, earning little money through some tailoring works. But with the new prosthetic legs fitted in May 2014, she "can walk her youngest child to school every day" as she happily commented. IOM provided Sanabil with artificial limbs in March 2014. In December 2014, she was in IOM's Damascus office for modification and follow up of the prosthetic works by the IOM hired SwissLEG expert.
