RECENT RESPONSE

	In the week of 12-18 July, IOM has delivered 1,015 hygiene kits and 3,960 NFI items to beneficiaries. In total, NFIs have been distributed to 24 different regions through a combination of IOM's direct implementation capacity and implementing partners.
	IOM's mobile repair teams concluded Shelter/WASH interventions in two collective centres in Uzhhorod while renovations are ongoing in nine centres in Dnipropetrovsk and Zakarpattia regions. These interventions include the renovation of sanitary facilities and work on electrical sockets, lighting fixtures and locks. Renovations are expected to commence or scale up in the coming weeks in Ivano-Frankivsk, Vinnytsia, Dnipropetrovsk, Zakarpattia, Chernivtsi and Lviv regions, including the rehabilitation of a 4,000 m2 former hospital in Uzhhorod and the reconstruction of a dormitory in Dnipro for IDPs from Mariupol.
	In the past week, IOM has carried out 18 WASH assessments in Dnipropetrovsk and Zakarpattia regions, aiming to support collective centres and IDP sites with the installation of water treatment units and small water supply and sanitation systems repairs. 36 washing and drying machines have been distributed to collective centres in Uzhhorod, covering the needs of more than 4,000 people.
	IOM provided essential health services in Lviv, Poltava, Chernivtsi and Sumy regions through mobile clinics operated by its implementing partners Sheptytsky Hospital and UK-Med during the reporting period, reaching 1,361 beneficiaries with direct medical support and 678 with psychological consultations. This support will soon be expanded to Vinnytsia Region through IOM's partner MedOK. Trauma first-aid capacity-building trainings were furthermore delivered to health professionals in Dnipropetrovsk Region.
	IOM, in coordination with the Vinnytsia Regional State Administration, shared information on its MHPSS Emotional Support Hotline in an effort to extend psychological support to the people affected by the missile attacks of Vinnytsia. In total, 3,876 consultations have been provided through IOM's Emotional Support Hotline since the escalation of the war. IOM furthermore held a meeting with the heads of public state hotlines in order to discuss training needs among operators.
	909 people have been provided with general and specialized protection assistance during the reporting period, bringing the total to 16,367. This is in addition to people who receive comprehensive assistance at IOM's Medical Rehabilitation Centre in Kyiv and to those who receive support through the IOM Counter-Trafficking and Migrant Advice Hotline.

In preparation for the cold season, IOM carried out repairs in a former summer camp in Irpin, heavily affected by the war. The camp currently serves as a collective centre

The central hospital in Kosiv, Ivano-Frankivsk Region, receives medicines and medical equipment to improve primary health care for displaced and host communities
